2. Position Summary

Alumni Relations works with the Faculties and Units of UVic and the Alumni Association, an independent society of UVic graduates, to deliver programs and services, communications and foster a culture of philanthropy amongst the 130,000+ alumni in over 127 countries worldwide. It also engages with UVic students to encourage a lifelong relationship between them and their university. Engaged alumni contribute to UVic’s success though volunteerism, influence, mentorship, hiring coop students and philanthropy. Alumni Relations shares and celebrates the successes of our alumni to illustrate the impact of an UVic degree and to recognize the significant impact UVic is having on our society and the World.

Jointly reporting to the Director of Alumni Relations and to the Dean/Assistant Dean/Unit Head/Manager of an assigned portfolio the Alumni Annual Giving Officer is responsible for increasing alumni engagement and alumni gifts in their assigned portfolio. The Alumni Annual Giving Officer works directly with the Manager of Annual Giving, the Alumni Relations and other Annual Giving Officers, the Annual Giving Coordinator, the Alumni Relations team, and colleagues in Alumni and Development to plan and implement initiatives that build and increase annual support of the university from alumni. The Officer will devise and implement solicitation strategies focused around alumni groups and individual giving, primarily below $25,000. This position’s core responsibility is to engage alumni in the life of the University and advance the development effort by identifying, cultivating, soliciting, and stewarding alumni donors.
